Re: Nicole Terzulli v. The Prudential Insurance Company of America, 1:25-cv-01913-GHW-SLC (S.D.N.Y)

Dear Judge Cave:

We represent Defendant The Prudential Insurance Company of America (“Prudential”) in the above-referenced matter.

In accordance with Your Honor’s individual practices, Prudential submits this unopposed letter motion for an adjournment of the Initial Case Management Conference scheduled for Monday, June 16, 2025 at 2:30 p.m. by telephone. (ECF No. 21.) This request is being made because Prudential’s counsel are unavailable on that date. Prudential has conferred with Plaintiff’s counsel, and confirmed that all parties are available for a remote Initial Case Management Conference on the following dates and times: June 20 (after 3:00 p.m. only), June 24, June 30, July 1-2, and July 7-11. Plaintiff’s counsel reports that Plaintiff does not object to the proposed adjournment, but also does not consent to it.

This is Prudential’s first request for an adjournment of the Initial Case Management Conference. Prudential seeks this relief in good faith, and not for purposes of delay. Prudential has confirmed that Plaintiff’s counsel does not oppose its requested adjournment. The only deadlines the requested extension will affect are the following: June 9, 2025 deadline to file Report of Rule 26(f) Meeting and Proposed Case Management Plan. Prudential proposes this deadline be rescheduled to seven (7) calendar days before the adjourned Initial Case Management Conference.

I thank Your Honor for your consideration of this application.

Hon. Sarah L. Cave, U.S.M.J.
